

MEN'S GOLF ASSOCIATION

APPLICATION PROCESS

1. Any member not on probation may sponsor up to three (3) new applicants. Members are only allowed to sponsor three (3) applicants at a time. The sponsor will be held accountable and act as the primary contact between the applicant and the membership committee.
2. The membership application fee must accompany the completed application.
3. Applicants that were previous members of the Men's Association are treated as new applicants.
4. Once the application is reviewed by the membership committee, the Board of Governors and an applicant's name has been accepted by the membership, an applicant will be approved for membership or if conditions dictate will be put on a waiting list.
5. The membership committee will invite the applicant and sponsor to a board meeting. It is very important that the applicant and sponsor attend. Failure to attend this meeting would result in a delay in the application process and/or not moving up on the waiting list.
6. The applicants name(s) will be "posted" for 30 days prior to acceptance. During the "posting" period, the membership has the ability to speak to the membership committee in favor or against an applicant.
7. When the posting period is complete, the committee will address the Board of Governors and report their recommendation, (accept or reject), the applicant for membership in the Association. Upon the results of the vote by the board of directors, the applicant will be notified.
8. Upon notification of acceptance, the new member will be obligated to attend an orientation session and pay his annual dues.
9. The new member will be placed on probation for his first year of membership.
10. "If a waiting list is in place". As openings occur, the membership committee will invite the applicant and sponsor to a board meeting. It is very important that the applicant and sponsor attend. Failure to attend this meeting would result in a delay in the application process and/or not moving up on the waiting list.
